Hi Jordan

A special person has decided to give you a unique gift that will change the lives of children and girls. Mariavittoria has decided to celebrate this special event with a donation to Still I Rise.

This donation will concretely become education for girls and children who would otherwise would be destined for child labor, whether in Kenya, Colombia, Congo, Yemen or Syria.

Together we are changing the world one child at a time.
Thank you for celebrating with us.

Here a message for you:

Happy Birthday Jordan! <3
